Spring is in the air and soon you will see a variety of pant length and styles filling the stores. Take advantage of this great opportunity to add a variety of lengths and styles to your wardrobe.

What's HOT?

1. The BIKER SHORT. I know you're going to scratch your head over this one, but it's real! Along with this trend you'll see an overall trend to soften your look with soft, elegant suiting options. Yep, even with the biker shorts.

Granted, this isn't for everyone and it won't work in every industry. If you like it but can't wear it to work then wear it with a long cardigan or long, sleeveless vest to an evening event. (All inspirations are provided by W by Worth.)

2. The ASYMMETRIC CROP. Get a high fashion look with a head-to-toe print that includes fun elements in the print or the hem. The uneven hem of these pants is best worn with a heel or wedge to keep your legs looking long, even if they're not.

These models are 6' tall and wear a size 6. Keep that in mind before you strike this off your 'what to wear' list. A petite can rock this look with a pair of deep rose or navy heels. If you're average in height, opt for a simple deep rose or ivory heel. And, if you're tall, a nude shoe will drive attention to the outfit.

3. THE WIDE LEG CROP. Can be worn with a variety of heel heights, such as the kitten heel, or tall boots. Wear it with a top or jacket that is loose or airy to keep a sense of balance with the look, overall, and not blocky.

If you have short legs, you may want to avoid this one as the length may make your legs appear even shorter. Otherwise, make sure the hemline is either above or below the widest part of your calf to avoid making your legs appear wide. Petite? No worries, this may be your new favorite ankle length pant!

4. THE CARGO. Perfect for the woman whose shape is widest at the shoulders. The pocket detail visually balances her frame. The satin fabric elevates this casual style; making it a sassy option for a networking event or date night.

Choose a shoe that compliments the softness of the fabric. This pant begs for fun shoes! Consider a strappy neon sandal, a floral linen pump, a metallic flat, or a nude suede.

5. THE SPORTY CARGO. Where athleisure meets elegance. Nailing an upscale sporty look will be much easier in 2019! French Terry is a perfect spring fabric – not too heavy, not too sheer. Ideal for the woman who wants an athletic style in fabrics that do not expose nor overly define her body.

Adorable with a low profile sneaker, espadrille, or a fabric wedge. This tonal example has an elegant vibe; but you can change the attitude with complimentary pieces like cropped sweaters, tank tops, graphic T's, or sweat shirts.

6. The Tie. Think: playful. Lengthen this sporty pant for heels or shorten it for the beach. Vacations deserve versatile clothes that can be worn while traveling (over-sized sweat shirts or silky top) as well as when touring the town (linen shirts or printed T's) or walking along the beach (with a cotton beach sweater or French Terry jacket, in hand).

Flip flops, sneakers, and sandals are perfect for this on-the-go pant.

7. THE ANKLE WORK PANT. Oh! The places you'll go in this ankle length pant - to work, to the theatre, on the plane, and to the party! (Shades of Coral and pink will be Spring's colour theme.)

This versatile pant lends itself to a variety of heels and flats for a casual-to-chic style.

8. THE TAILORED WIDE LEG. Keep a boring wardrobe far away by having a variety of pant legs in your closet. This soft suit makes a 70's-inspired power statement and can be worn with a cutaway top, silky sweater, or an all-business button-down. Switch to a cropped jacket or cardigan to give it more of a party vibe.

To compliment the tailored style of this pant wear almond or pointy-toed shoes: heels, low platform, loafer heels, and classic flats are great options.

There you have it...a sneak peek at some of 2019's Spring Hot Pants.

I hope you're inspired to add a new length, colour, or style into your wardrobe! (Did you also notice the season's top colour hint? It's Coral – and all shades of pink.) Join me at...
